

Apiax, a leading embedded compliance provider, joins Reynen Court Solution Store

Zürich, January 18, 2022 - Reynen Court, Inc., the legal technology platform supported by a consortium of twenty of the largest international law firms, announced that Apiax's embedded compliance solution has been added to its Solution Store.

Apiax's solution is used by a large network of law firms and regulatory experts around the world. A number of forward-looking advisory and law firms use Apiax to provide their regulatory content in a digital format. This new digital format allows law firms to sell their legal content to more clients, faster.

Law firms are beginning to provide their legal content digitally. "We are delighted that Apiax has partnered with Reynen Court and has been added to their platform. Apiax is pleased to meet the growing demand for digital regulatory content in the Reynen Court Solution Store," said Alan Blanchard, Business Development, Apiax.

Sam Moore, Legal Tech Ecosystem Strategist, Reynen Court, said: "Digitising compliance advice, especially in complex multi-jurisdictional matters, has never been more important. Legal teams and law departments alike are navigating increasingly complex regulations to arrive at informed advice for their clients and stakeholders, and innovative solutions such as Apiax have a vital role to play in meeting this challenge. We're delighted to welcome Apiax to our vendor community as an exciting player in the 'Reg Tech' space."

Apiax is pleased to be part of the Reynen Court Solution Store with its innovative technology that makes legal knowledge easier to access for financial institutions and drives new revenue streams for law firms.
